

FALL 2019 Report: History and Sociology Club/Phi Alpha Theta

HCon Report:

On October 30 2019 from 6:30 to 8:00 the History and Sociology Club and Phi Alpha Theta hosted our annual H-Con, where students dress up in their favorite historical or historically themed costume. Despite stormy weather, we had a great turnout of more than 30 individuals. We hosted the event in the ground floor hallway of Old CE. We enjoyed food from the Halal Guys, had a parade and contest, and a corn hole tournament. The crowd favorite prize went to Teresa Muñoz who dressed up as Empress Theodora and first place to Mariel Barnett as Sigmund Freud. Meredith Wood won the corn hole contest. The judges were Dr.'s Kate Brown and Dr. Jennifer Singh, who came with their families, including a mummy and Nicholas Tesla.

Prizes:

Crowd favorite: 20 dollar gift card Starbucks and t-shirt: Marriel Barnett

1st place: 20 dollar gift card Starbucks and t-shirt: Marriel Barnett

Second place: 10 dollar gift card Starbucks and t-shirt: John Kerry

Corn Hole Contest: Meredith Wood

Budget for H-Con

48.52 Publix Candy and soda

60.00 Starbucks cards for prizes

272.99

Total 381.51

In addition, History and Sociology Club met in early September to set an agenda; the students have continued to be in touch with each other through meets and other ways.
